

Never-ending News

www.neverendingstories.co.za

April 2015

Dear Boys and Girls

Did you manage to figure out how many months have my letter in their name?

I think April is by far one the busiest times to celebrate in Never-ending Stories as it is jam-packed with special days. There is Arbour Day, Earth Day, International Book Day and one of our favourite authors' birthdays too. So there is so much to keep us busy. And of course its April fools which I think must be Sally Scribblers' best day by far, her and Funny Fran of course. And not to forget it is Easter where our friend, Mr Bernard Bunny pops in for a visit. I wonder where our treasure hunt will be this year?

All my love

Martha Mouse

The Letter Tree

This month Eager Emily has been trying to teach the toys how important trees are because without them we wouldn't have oxygen.

Draw a tree and show the first letter and a picture for each of these words: root, acorn, leaf, branch, seed, orange, tendril

The Ant Maze

The ants have been at the cake that Martha Mouse left for the forgotten toys. Help the ants find their way through the maze to get to the apples.

Alphabet Scramble

Even Grandpa Ben has joined in on the April Fools fun and jumbled the letters on the notice board. Can you help Martha Mouse sort them out?

Rewrite the following letters in correct alphabetic order left to right.

1. j q u p f u o t m n l z
2. z j p x k c u n e s a m
3. i u y t o l h k f d x b m
4. m l o j i p t b h r f v d

How Never-ending Stories Began

With winter fast approaching Martha Mouse shivered as she headed off to bed. She heard the side door creak as a forgotten toy entered the room looking for warmth.

She was glad she remembered to put a pot of tea on and left a few biscuits with a blanket at the welcome mat.

She smiled as she nodded off to sleep.

Find the Missing Items

Sally Scribbler has secretly taken an item from everyone in Never-ending Stories and hidden them somewhere.

She's now playing a game of hide and seek with everyone by leaving clues behind. Each person has to follow their marker to a find their item.

Can you guess what she's taken from each person?

- | | |
|-------------------|----------------|
| Martha Mouse | Train ticket |
| Confident Charlie | Feather Duster |
| Eager Emily | Joke book |
| Timid Timothy | Nuts |
| Grandpa Ben | Blanket |
| Funny Fran | Bookmark |

Joke Time

Why did Silly Billy write TGIF on his slippers?

Toes Go In First

What do you take off last before going to bed?

Your feet off the floor

April Book Suggestions

April Events & Special Days

- Easter
- Passover
- Hans Christian Anderson's birthday
- April Fool's Day
- Arbour Day
- Earth Day – What do you think is a good way to celebrate Earth Day?

